An Irish Blessing

(Edición: Nancho Álvarez y otros)

Tradicional irlandesa

Arreglo: James E. Moore, Jr.

1. May the road rise to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rains fall soft upon your nights. May the flowers bloom along your path, your house stand firm against the

2. May the sun make your days bright. May the stars illuminate your path. May the sun make your days bright. May the sun make your days bright. May the sun make your days bright.

1. May the road rise to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rains fall soft upon your nights. May the flowers bloom along your path, your house stand firm against the

2. May the sun make your days bright. May the stars illuminate your path. May the sun make your days bright. May the sun make your days bright. May the sun make your days bright.
fields and until we meet again, until we meet again may storm. And un =
fields and until we meet again, until we meet again may
storm. And un =
fields and until we meet again, until we meet again may
storm. And un =
fields and until we meet again, until we meet again may
storm. And un =

1. God hold you in the pals of his hand, and unhand.

2. D.C.

God, may God hold you in the pals of his hand, and unhand.

God, may God hold you in the pals of his hand, and unhand.

God hold you in the pals of his hand, and unhand.